

Final – Programme Kings & Queens Conference – « Monarchy and Empire » - CRHIA et CRINI – June 29 to July 2, 2022
Campus Tertre – Nantes Université

Wed June 29	activities	Room #	location
8h30-9h00	Welcome/registration	Hall - Bâtiment Tertre	Campus Tertre
9h00– 9h30	Mots de bienvenue / Welcoming addresses Annick Peters-Custot (Dean of the History faculty) & Sophie Belan (Dean of the Modern Languages faculty) Pierre Carboni (Campus Humanities) & Karine Durin (Head of the CRINI research group) Françoise Le Jeune & Ellie Woodacre	# T 214	Building Tertre 2 nd floor
9h30-11h00	Session 1
	Workshop 1 : Deconstructing Medieval Empire	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Matthew Firth (Flinders University), “Dei gratia basileos Anglorum: Imperial Models for Æthelstan’s British Hegemony” - Bruno Shirley (Cornell University), “An Empire by Any Other Name: looking for “the imperial” in medieval Southern Asia” - Franziska Quaas (University of Hamburg), “Mathilda imperatrix regis anglorum filia or How to legitimize queenship over England by being a Roman Empress” Chair: Dustin M. Neighbors (University of Helsinki)
	Panel 1 : English Queens as Figures of Empire	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Peter Stiffell (Kent University), “‘No less their mistress than of her own crown of England’: The foreign imagery of Mary I in Catholic Europe” (Z) - Susannah Lyon-Whaley (Auckland University), “‘England’s Empresse Rules the Seas’: Catherine of Braganza as a Global Consort and Imperial Queen” (Z) - Jane Lawson (Emory University/Sheffield University), “‘In the progresse tyme’: The Progresses of Mary I” Chair: Johanna Strong (University of Winchester) (Z)
Coffee break	--
11h30-12h30	Keynote 1: Annick PETERS-CUSTOT (Nantes Université, CRHIA) : « Studying Imperiality as a way to approach the efficiency of Empire in the Medieval and Modern worlds” (Methods and results of the Imperialiter programme, 2017-2021)	# T 214
Lunch break	---	Château du Tertre	Ground floor
14h00-15h30	Session 2

	Workshop 2: Narrating the Habsburg Empire	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Bretton Rodriguez (University of Nevada), “Imperial Histories: Florián de Ocampo and the Estoria de España at the Court of Charles V” - Rocio Martínez López (Autonoma Universidad Madrid), “‘Charles V’s empire must never come back!’ The Habsburgs and the succession of the Holy Roman Empire in moments of succession crises (1600-1740)” - Charlotte Backerra (University of Göttingen), “‘To save the universe’. Emperor Charles VI, European Peace, and Global Claims.” Chair: Cathleen Sarti (Oxford University)
	Panel 2: Embodying Imperium, potestas, and auctoritas: Gendered Ritual and Representation in Iberia and France, ca. 1300-ca. 1700	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Zita Rohr (Macquarie University), “Smoke and Mirrors? Performing imperium in late medieval Aragon and France.” - Elena Woodacre (University of Winchester), “Ambition or Survival? The use of ceremonial to further (quasi) royal ambitions and reinforce precarious positions.” - Jonathan Spangler (Manchester Metropolitan University), “Queen of the Mediterranean, Empress of the Indies? The Imperial claims of Maria Teresa, Queen of France and potential heiress of Carlos II of Spain.” Chair: Gabrielle Storey (Independent scholar) (Z)
Coffee break	---
16h00-17h30	Session 3
	Workshop 3 : Fashioning Empire	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Nikita Balagurov (University of Helsinki), “Art and Empire in Ilia Repin’s ‘Alexander III Receiving Volost Elders’ (1886)” - Ulla Ratheiser (University of Innsbrück), “The image of an Empress, Queen Victoria, Empress of India” Chair: Françoise Le Jeune (Nantes Université)
	Panel 3 : Northern European Queenship Networks and Empire (1141-1685)	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Gabrielle F. Storey (independent scholar), “Royal Female Patronage and the Networks of the Angevin Domains” (Z) - Mélita Thomas (University College London), “Utilisation of social networks before her accession by Mary I’

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Mindy J. Williams (Purdue University), “Mary of Modena: Dynastic Agency, Catholicism, and the Art of Amicitia Civile” Chair: Johanna Strong (U of Winchester) (Z)
18h00-20h00	Walking tour downtown Nantes (2 groups) - 6 pm in front of the Tourist office Soirée libre - Free evening		Tramway from Campus to Tourist Office (30- 35 min)
Jeudi 30 juin	activities	Room #	Location
8h30-10h00	Session 4
	Workshop 4 : Painting imperial majesty	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Holly Marsden (University of Winchester and Historic Royal Palaces), “Painting empire: Mary II and William III’s place in the Painted Hall, Greenwich” - Lukas Maier (Institut für Kunstgeschichte), “The Representation of Charles I as Emperor of Great Britain” (Z) - Ruth Dawson (University of Hawaii), “Satirical Representations of the Female Imperial Monarch: Catherine the Great in Eighteenth-Century Political Cartoons” Chair: Nikita Balagurov (University of Helsinki),
	Panel 4 : Before Empire : Iberia, gender and dominion	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Miriam Shadis (Ohio University), “Lord of all she surveys: Lady, Queen, Empress, and female rule in 12th century Iberia” - Lucy Pick (independent scholar), “Blanche, a Castilian Infanta in the French Court” - Theresa Earenfight (Seattle University), “Defaced and Erased, but Not Forgotten: The Legacy of Catherine of Aragon’s Books” Chair: Miriam Shadis (Ohio University)
Coffee break	--
10h30-12h00	Session 5
	Workshop 5 : Transitioning towards the end of empire	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Lucy Coatman (St Andrews University), “The Last Empress: The Transitions, Images and Functions of Zita of Bourbon-Parma, 1911-1922” - Jessica Storoschuk (Independent scholar), “Queen of Canada: Who, again?” - Matthew P. FitzPatrick (Flinders University), “Monarchy and Empire in German Cameroon” Chair: Bruno Shirley (Cornell University)	Zoom session

	Panel 5 : Imperial Mirage : The Strategy to rise Through Women in Nordic Kingdoms	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Louise Berglund (Uppsala University), “Élite ladies of the Late Medieval North and quests for power” - Fabian Persson (Linnaeus University), “Riding for a Fall: The Nordic Strategy to Rise to Through Women” - Cathleen Sarti (University of Oxford), “Owning Lands in the Danish Empire - The Oldenburg Queens and Their Resources” Chair : Jane Lawson (Emory University/Sheffield University)
Lunch break	---	Château du Tertre
13h30-15h00	Session 6
	Workshop 6 : Promoting Imperium	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - David Malitz (German Institute for Japanese Studies, Tokyo), “King or Emperor? Titling the Monarchs of mid to late 19th-Century Japan and Siam” (Z) - Jessica Hower (Southwestern University, Austin), “‘An empire in itself’: Constructing and Contesting Imperial Kingship in the Early Modern World” (Z) - Valérie Schutte (University of Akron), “Imperial impediments to the Royal Progress of Anne of Cleves” (Z) Chair: Ellie Woodacre (University of Winchester)
	Panel 6 : Asian responses to monarchy and empire in the colonial period, c. 1869-1920	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Robert Aldrich (University of Sydney), “A Siamese Prince in Tsarist Russia, 1896-1908: Letters about Royal Life and World Affairs in the Age of Empire” - Donna Brunero (National University of Singapore), “‘Not a matter of expenditure, but an expression of loyalty’: Singapore and the jubilee of 1935” - Cindy McCreery (University of Sydney), “‘Comparatively exiled in this remote part of the globe’: Loyal addresses presented by Asian port communities to Britain’s Prince Alfred, 1869-70” Chair: Françoise Le Jeune (Nantes Université)	Zoom session
Pause café	---
15h30-17h00	Session 7
	Workshop 7a) Satirizing monarchy and empire	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Oxana Grigorjeva & Nikita Plyusnin (St Petersburg State University), “Three Nations, One Queen: Hegemonic Monarchic Imagery and the Unity of the Realm (Rigsfællesskabet)” (Z)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Laura Garcia Sanchez (University of Barcelona), “Make-up to protect, make-up to demystify. The double image of Charles II of the House of Austria” - Teresa Maria E Sousa Nunez (Centro de História, University of Lisbon), “Political Modernity and Empire: The Portuguese debate on Empire and Monarchic Decadence (1879-1910)” (Z) Chair : Charlotte Backerra (University of Göttingen)
	Workshop 7b) Remains of Empire	# T 214 (60 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Filipa Medeiros (University of Coimbra), “Maior in occasu: how did the memorial services for King João V represented the ruler of the Portuguese Empire ?” (Z) - Michael Evans (Delta College, Michigan), “Edward II, Isabella of France, and the Remains of ‘Empire’” (Z) Chair: Pierre Carboni (Nantes Université)
18h00-19h30	Welcome cocktail Nantes City Hall (Mairie) & Book launch of the “Lives of Royal Women” series (Routledge) Soirée libre – Evening free	Mairie de Nantes / City Hall Salle Paul Bellamy (29, rue de Strasbourg)	(30 min from Campus to stop “Place du Cirque” (line 2) then 10- min walk
Friday July 1	activities	Room #	Location
8h30-10h00	Session 8
	Workshop 8a) Regenerating monarchy and empire	# T 203 (45 pl)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Frederico De Sousa Ribeiro Benvinda (University of Lisbon), “‘La force prime le droit’ - The Baron of Santos’ (1828-1903) view of Alexander II (1818-1881) during the Russo-Turkish War (1877-1878)” (Z) - António Paulo Duarte (Nova University of Lisbon), “Regenerate Monarchy, Regenerate Empire. Empire and Regeneration in the Portuguese Colonial Discourse, 1851-1910” - Soraia Milene Carvalho (University of Lisbon), “The Spanish Monarchy and imperial issues in Portuguese diplomatic lectures: Augusto de Vasconcelos’ vision from the Portuguese Legation in Madrid to the League of Nations (1914-1936)” (Z) Chair : Rocío Martínez López (Autonoma Universidad Madrid)
	Workshop 8b) Constructing imperialism through networking	# T 214 (60 pl)

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Hannah Keller (Ohio State University), “Edward IV as Master of the Game: Fashioning an Anglo-French Empire” - Manuela Santos Silva (University of Lisbon), “Rex and Imperator according to 13th century Castilian political thought” - Dustin M. Neighbors (University of Helsinki), “Imperial Bonds: Uniting Saxony and the Holy Roman Empire through Political Privacy and Personal Networks” Chair: Bretton Rodriguez (University of Nevada)
Coffee break	--
10h30-12h00	Pitch your project - Meet the publishers Chair : Ellie Woodacre (Editor-in-Chief of the Royal Studies Journal)
Lunch break	---	Château du Tertre
14h00-15h00	Keynote 2 : Fanny MADELINE (Sorbonne Université Paris I), « The imperial dynamics of Normand and Angevin Kingship »	# T 214 (60 pl)
Short break	---
15h15-16h15	Keynote 3 : Anne-Sophie BANAKAS (Sorbonne Université-Ruprecht-Karls-Universität Heidelberg) : « De la représentation de la souveraine Marie-Thérèse à l’image de l’Empire de la Maison d’Autriche » (in French with translation)	# T 214 (60 pl)
16h15-16h30	Closing remarks & presentation of next year’s Kings and Queen’s conference (Ellie Woodacre)	# T 214 (60 pl)
17h00-19h00	Tour of Château des Ducs de Bretagne (2 groups)	Meeting point – entrance of the Castle	(30-35 min tramway from Campus to Castle)
19h30	Dîner de Gala / Gala dinner Brasserie Félix – 1 rue Lefèvre Utile- 44000 Nantes	Brasserie Felix	10 min from Castle
Sat. July 2	Activities		Location
8h-20h	Visit of Plantagenêt Country (by bus): <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) Château d’Angers (10-12 am) 2) Lunch and visit of Abbaye de Fontevraud (1-4 pm) 3) Wine tasting (4.30-6.30) 	Pick up and drop off points - by the Audencia Business School	Campus Humanités